

Bylaws for the CALPHAD Young Leader Award

CALPHAD Young Leader Award (CYLA)

Candidates have not yet reached their 45th birthday and no more than 10 years has passed (as of December 31, prior to the award year) since receiving their highest degree in the field (Ph.D., Master, or equivalent degree). The criteria to be considered by the selection committee are as follows:

1. Demonstration of high achievements related to the CALPHAD community.
2. Demonstration of leadership skills.
3. At least one paper was published in the CALPHAD journal in the past three years.
4. Active participation in CALPHAD conferences.

Nomination package before December 31 sent to calphad-awards@googlegroups.com by a nominator (self-nominations allowed):

1. One-page cover letter by the nominator describing the candidate's eligibility based on the selection criteria mentioned above.
2. Two recommendation letters, including the contact information of the recommenders.
3. Full CV of the nominee (with year of birth and date of all degrees).

Nominations are valid for three years, with the option for the nominator to update.

At the CALPHAD Board's discretion, the Award may be withheld any given year.

Benefits and Obligations:

1. Complimentary registration of the CALPHAD conference of the year when the award is given.
2. Serving as a Young CALPHAD member of the editorial board for three years.

Young CALPHAD Board Council

Young CALPHAD board council consist of two members from the CALPHAD board and the last three CYLA recipients.

Young CALPHAD board council will

- 1) Organize the "Young CALPHADian meeting" during the annual CALPHAD conference.
- 2) Review the application package of "CALPHAD Young Leader Award" and recommend the award recipient to the CALPHAD Board.
- 3) Report/suggest the opinions of young CALPHADians (student or early career members) to the CALPHAD Board.